

Non-Tuition Fees Review
Fiscal 2021

Frequently Asked Questions

What programs/supports does each fee cover?

Athletic and Recreation Fee

Fee Purpose: This fee supports recreational and athletic programs (intercollegiate athletic, club sport, intramural opportunities) led by Campus Life, as well as utilization of the Woodruff PE Center and the Student Activity and Academic Center facilities.

Activity Fee

Fee Purpose: The various student government organizations charge students to support various student clubs and activities across the University. This fee supports the Student Government Association, organized student activities, and campus events.

Health and Wellness Fee

Fee Purpose: This fee supports various health and wellness program provided through Campus Life, Student Health Services and the Counseling Center, such as counseling, psychiatry, health, wellness, and crisis intervention support services. Programs are available to all graduate and undergraduate students, regardless of where they live or study.

What fees does a student living on campus have to pay versus a student who is only taking online classes?

Fee:	Living on Campus	Remote Learning
Athletic & Recreation Fee	Not charged	Not charged
Activity Fee	SGA: $82 per semester GSGA: $49 per semester	SGA: $82 per semester GSGA: $49 per semester
Health and Wellness Fee	$91 per semester	$91 per semester
Housing Fee	Charged approved rate per Housing rate chart	Not charged
Dining Fee	Charged approved rate for meal plan selected	Not charged
Orientation Fee	Not charged	Not charged
Specific program/course fees	Determined by each School	Determined by each School

Please confirm, if a student is living off campus close by and plans to be a part of the on-campus community, they will pay the “taking online classes only”.

If a student is not living on campus in the Atlanta Campus Housing or Oxford Campus Housing, the “Remote Learning” slate of fees will be charged.